

CFR's quiz on refugees

Please take the Council on Foreign Relations quiz on refugees. As you take the quiz, you'll learn not only from the questions and their answers but the additional information provided. As you take the quiz, make note of one thing that you learned beyond the answer about refugees.

1. The official definition of a refugee includes which of the following elements?*
2. Individuals who have fled their homes but remained in their own country are known as what?*
3. Approximately how many refugees are there in the world today?*
4. Which country is the origin of the largest number of refugees? *
5. Which country is hosting the largest number of refugees from other states?*

6. On average, roughly how many people around the world were displaced from their homes each day in 2017?*

7. Which country has the largest population of internally displaced persons (IDPs)?*

8. Which organization is primarily responsible for assisting the world's refugees?*

9. The U.S. government has limited the number of refugees the United States could admit in fiscal year 2019 to _____.*

10. Under U.S. policy, what distinguishes asylum seekers from refugees?*