

Climate Change Policy Options

	Option 1: Past Emitters Must Pay
According to this option what is "justice"?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Polluters must pay• Accountability for past wrongs
Who does this option think should face mandatory emissions restrictions?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Historic emitters
How does this option think adaptation should be paid for?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• By countries with a history of causing the problem
According to this option, are international agreements an effective way to deal with climate change? Why?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Yes, and they should help countries most vulnerable to climate change
What are this options views about economic development?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Poorer countries should be able to develop without restriction

	Option 2: Responsibility Must be Shared by All
According to this option what is "justice"?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stop current wrongs and prevent future ones
Who does this option think should face mandatory emissions restrictions?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All countries should have restrictions
How does this option think adaptation should be paid for?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • By those able to pay
According to this option, are international agreements an effective way to deal with climate change? Why?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All countries should play a role in negotiation
What are this options views about economic development?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Long term environmental gains outweigh short term economic ones

	Option 3: Economic Growth and Development Come First
According to this option what is "justice"?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Allowing everyone the opportunity to pursue economic prosperity
Who does this option think should face mandatory emissions restrictions?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No one, allow growth so new technology can be invested in
How does this option think adaptation should be paid for?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • National governments, this should not be an international issue
According to this option, are international agreements an effective way to deal with climate change? Why?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No, more important to have local control
What are this options views about economic development?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Development has to come first. Need to eliminate poverty.