

Vietnamese Immigration

Based on the requirements that we set, would you let the Nguyen's remain in the United States? Please include your position along with two pieces of evidence from the reading to support it.

Should the United States be responsible for accepting refugees from a country we just fought a war in? Are there scenarios that would accept them and scenarios that you wouldn't? Please include at least five lines of writing in your response.